Triple C Housing, Inc. Consumer Advisory Committee

Members of CAC expectations:

As a CAC member, you are expected to attend and participate in regular meetings held four (4) times per year at a minimum and represent the Counties served by Triple C Housing. The majority of a 6 person committee must be a consumer (4 of 6 members) and be:

- willing to receive training for their role on the committee;
- willing to participate in the CAC's efforts;
- willing to attend scheduled meetings;
- willing to make efforts to be informed about issues affecting persons with disabilities;
- willing to be open-minded and open to diversity

The CAC shall undertake all of the following:

- Review, comment on, and monitor the implementation of the strategic plan related to service delivery and events;
- Identify service gaps and underserved populations;
- Make recommendations regarding the service array and monitor the development of additional services;
- Participate in all quality improvement measures and performance indicators as conveyed through the Quality Assurance Committee's annual appraisal; and
- Submit to the Executive Director findings and recommendations regarding ways to improve service delivery to be shared with the Board of Trustees.
